Storybook Characters Sought for the Friends of the Leesburg Library Parade Float

The Friends of the Leesburg Public Library is looking for storybook characters to escort the Friends' parade float in the Leesburg Christmas Parade on the evening of December 6, 2003. The parade begins at 6:00 p.m.

The float, which will feature a Charles Dickens' Christmas Carol theme, will celebrate the contributions of the Leesburg Library, past, present, and future.

Children, ages eight and above, who have a storybook character costume and are able to walk the length of Main Street in costume are invited to volunteer. Parents should join the fun by walking along with their children to make sure that they are able to walk the distance of the parade route.

This is a chance for families to celebrate the season, while also celebrating the great contribution that the Leesburg Library, still growing and getting better, has made to the community.

For more information about this volunteer opportunity, contact Lois Gross, Youth Services Librarian, at 728-9793.
